

Though I understand the telemarketer's interest in their right to call whomever they want, I also understand that I have a right to be left alone. I choose to be left alone and not be bothered by nonsense, unimportant telephone calls. Please do not overturn the DO NOT CALL ruling.